Rush So Great that Most of the Unofficial Visitors Mave No Time to Talk to the President-Many New Yorkers Left Out in the Cold-A Delegation of New York Business Men Have a Talk With Mr. Cleveland About Some Appointments,

Washington, April 5.-This was the second ar of the second month of President Clevsland's struggle with the office seekers, and the crowd was the greatest of the season ambitious patriots seem to have gained their second wind, and they fairly fell over each other this morning in their engerness to say a word in behalf of themselves or their friends in the not very receptive ear of the President. He maintains a smiling front, seeker had gone and also the crowd of more atriotic and less expectant citizens who at ded ats public reception in the East Room. Morkeaper Loeffler, with a sigh of relief: This has been our busy day." And so it had been. The rush of office seekers was so great that many of the Senators and Representatives did not conclude their business with the President until half-past 12 o'clock. The conanauce was that a large portion of the unofficial visitors did not get an opportunity to of them reached the White House as early as

There were a number of New Yorkers in the erowd outside the door when the announcement was made that the President would not be able to receive any more general business allers. Among the unfortunates were S. W. ngs of Buffalo, C. H. Lee of Sliver Creek. eticallo R. W. Nichol of Medina, Isaac Noble of Buffalo, Mozart H. Cutler of Honcore Falls, Joseph Wirt of Brooklyn, and Raiph Johnson of Buffalo. There was much grumbling among these visitors, who were not ampanied by Congressmen, for it was conours, yet they occupied half an hour additional. None of the callers appeared to obtain my great amount of satisfaction from the terr about putting their papers on file. Some of the visitors intimated that nearly all of the rable places are fast being disposed of. mt even that broad suggestion failed to arouse the sympathy of the President. The asplicants moved upon him by twos, by threes, and by dozens, without avail. He listened to them for a lew minutes, and then turned to great the next contingent in waiting.

Gen Wade Hampton and two friends from Bouth Carolina were received at half-past 9 elock, by special appointment, to talk over the political situation in the Palmetto State. The controversy between the Tillman and sait. Tillman factions has reached that stage where the President feels it his duty to appeals Postmaster-General Bissell arbitrator. While Gen. Hampton was conversing with the President, the Cabinet room was crowded with benators and Representatives, many of whom have visited the White House every day alnow the inauguration. Gen. Fitzhugh Lee of Virgial called, but finding the room so crowded made an appointment with Private Secretary hitrest to see the President alone at some hitre time. alleants moved upon him by twos, by threes,

One of the conspicuous visitors at the White Souse to-day was ex-Senator Van Wyck of Newtana. He has broken away from the Republican party, and is the representative of the intriparty movement in his State. He said that he simply called to pay his respects. a Visit to Washington, A tribe of business men, with Chief P. R. faurber in charge, executed a flank move-ment on Washington yesterday. The braves of the tribe were Sheppard Knapp, A. F. Power, Andrew J. Foye, William Allen, J. R. W. Mudge, and John S. Martin. The movement was care My concealed under a plea of private busihese, and New York was left behind in the darkness and the dust storm of Tuesday night. Washington was unwarned, and before Mr. develand or Secretary Lamont knew it the apital had been invaded. The descent on the white House was made shortly after noon. The guards were brushed aside by the weight reputation the tribe carried. The Executive com was taken by storm and the door was these. These facts might never have been them had in not been for an ex-New Yorker who had turned Washington reporter and who has over the party as they were leaving the Lacutive Mansion, their faces flushed and widened with smiles. He approached Mr. Thurber and demanded information.

FITZHUGH LEE BENT FOR.

A Visit to Washington at Mr. Cleveland's Request-The Virginia Situation.

RICHMOND, Va., April 5.—It is understood that Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, who was booked for a visit to President Cleveland to-day or to-morrow. goes in response to an invitation from Mr. Cleveland himself. Ex-Gov. Lee is a leading candidate for United States Senator before the Legislature to be elected this fall. His most formidable opponent is Thomas Gov. Lee has said that he did not wish any of-Gov. Lee has sale that he did not wish any or-fice in Mr. Cleveland's gift, but preferred to try for the Senate. Among a good many of his friends, however, there is a regret wish that he may accept something from Mr. Cleveland. They do not think that he will certainly get the Senatorship. They think he could easily win in an election before the peonle, but they do not believe he will have a walkover before the Legisaliva canena.

Democrata, too, are not anxious to have a hot fight between Martin and Lee, in which senator Daniel may be unpleasantly placed. He is a warm friend of both, but is under the strongest personal obligations to Martin, who really won the Secretaryahip for him over the late Senator Barbour. Martin is atronger than Lee in organizing ability. The result of the interview of Gen. Lee with President Cleveland is, therefore, waited for with eagerness by the friends of not only Lee and Martin, but by those of the present Senator, Mr. Hunton, as well.

men into the court for exercise. Keeper O'Toole turned them out yesterday morning, and had some of them engaged in emptying ashea, into a small court which opens into the regular court. It is probable that Bertholf sneaked out into this court with those who were set at work there. After reaching it he scaled in some way the 30-foot wall and dropped into a back yard on Fifty-eighth street.

The wall is perfectly smooth and only a water drain runs up to the ton. This is not strong enough to sustain the weight of a man, and Bertholf must have had outside assistance. Possibly a rope may have been thrown over the wall by some one on the other side. Bertholf was active and ast expert in climbing. His absence was not observed by Keeper O'Toole until 7:45, when he locked up the other prisoners. Then a general slarm was cent out, but no clue as to his whereahouts had been obtained at a late hour last night.

ALBANY, April 5.-Morris Brunswick, a com mercial traveller for Moses Guttmann, dealer in millinery trimmings at 21 and 23 Mercer street, New York city, committed suicide at the Kenmore Hotel early this morning. He went to the theatre last night and appeared to be as cheerful as ever. He returned at about be as cheerful as ever. He returned at about 11 o'clock and leit a call for 8 o'clock this morning. He was called, but did not respond. A short time afterward the chambermaid, finding the door uniocked, entered, and found Brunswick lying dead on the floor. He had shot himself through the right temple with a 38-calibre revolver, which he had evidently taken from his vallee, as it lay open bestide him. Brunswick had just recovered from an attack of nervous prostration, and this was his first tripslinee his illness. It is therefore thought that he shot himself in a fit of momentary insanity. He left no clusto indicate that there was any cause for the deed. He was about 33 years old and unmarried. Friends arrived this evening and took charge of the body.

TOO SICK TO WORK.

A SAD SCENE DAILY OCCURRING IN BUSINESS HOUSES.

an English Writer's Words-Siekness Meant Loss of Time and Money to People Who Work-Valuable Optatons of Home Noted Hard Workers,

There is a point where nature can endure no more and demands a rest. Then the poor suf-ferer, worn with toil and broken in health. stands uside to make room for another. It door occupations, in every branch of industry. "Quick consumption," they sometimes call it.

This is not exaggeration. Any one who studies the subject knows that every word of it is true. A well-known English writer, who was recently interviewed by the New York Herald, has this to say about it: "The men of America are wonders, and the women are absolutely phenomenal. But the average Amercan goes in too much of a hurry, and is at a constant tension from morning to night. The constant tension from morning to night. The result is the frequent breaking down of an overburdened system and the widespread ex-istence of those fearful complaints of the di-gestive organs from which all Americans suf-fer."

"I AM NOT WELL ENOUGH TO WORK."

Men and women who work ought to realize this. They cannot get a fair return for their hard work unless they are in good working order. Any doctor will tell you that if the nerves, stomech, liver, and kidneys are kent in proper condition the whole system will be in a fit state to meet the strain that is daily made upon it. It is only in this way that strength of body and mind can be preserved. There is no necessity for any man or woman breaking down while at work, and thus losing money, time, and employment. Care and attention to the points mentioned and a constant watch for dangerous symptoms mean dollars and cents in the long run. You cannot afford to be one of those unfortunates whose constant complaint is: "I am not well enough to work."

In this connection the following remarkable words of Mrs. Grace Henderson of 344 West Fifty-first street are of special interest. She said:

"When I graduated from school some five "I AM NOT WELL ENOUGH TO WORK."

"When I graduated from school some five years ago there was not one among my class-mates who was in a better state of health than I was. After a trip abroad I returned to my old home, married, and came to New York to live. Within a year my husband died, and I was comnelled to earn my own living. Having some influence, and being naturally adapted to such an occupation. I secured a position as teacher in one of the public schools. The work is particularly trying to a person of sensitive disposition, and I felt that it was having its effects upon me. My norves, usually very strong, had become so weakened that the least unusual occurrence would cause me the greatest annovance. My strength began to fail me, my appetite was poor. My physician told me that my only hope of regaining health was to rest. My means would not allow of my doing such a thing, heree I had to find some medicine that would tone up my system. I found such a remedy and used it constantly for nearly five months. Whon I began to use it. I weighed but 103 pounds, which was some forty pounds less than when I began teaching. In four months I gained thirty pounds and felt perfectly well, as shown by my picture. I am truly a convert to the benefits to be gained from using that wonderful medicine, Palne's celery compound.

Men and women who work hard to make a living cannot afford to run the risk of serious illness. They need to keep their systems in good condition in order to do their best and make a success of life. By the aid of the great compound above referred to they can do this, and thus avoid the straining, wearing effects of toil which break down the health.—

DURNED CANARIES FOR REVENGE.

Mrs. Catherine Menninger of 144 Throop avenue. Williamsburgh, was the owner until Monday night of four canary birds, for which she repeatedly had refused $100. The birds were of the light green species and were good singers. About a week ago Menninger, it is said, went on a spree. Mrs. Menninger says beer on Monday night he struck her in the him again. Afterward she went out to visit her sister. During her absence Menninger took the pet canaries from their cages, it is asserted, and threw them into the to is asserted, and threw them into the hot kitchen stove, where they were burned to death. When Mrs. Menninger returned and missed her pets, she asked her husband what had become of them. He laughingly told her that he had hurned them. Mrs. Menninger removed the iid of the stove and saw the charred bodies of her four canaries in a row on the live conta. She began to cry, and then she says that Menninger knocked her against the wall. On Tuesday morning Mrs. Manninger went to the Lee Avenue Police Court and obtained a warrant for her husband's arrest for assaulting her. When he was arraigned in court yesterday Mrs. Menninger told Justice Connolly of his cruelty to the canaries.

"I had those poor little birds so tamed," she said, "that every morning they began to sing as soon as I went into the kitchen; and my husband knew that I loved them with all my heart. Sometimes he told me that if ever I offended him he would be revenged in a manner that I would remember to my dying day. This is the revenge he meant."

Menninger denied that he threw the birds into the stove. He said he took them to a friend's house. Mrs. Menninger, interrupting him, said her boy saw him put them in the fire. Menninger finally said that he took the birds out of the cage to 'let them fly around and that thoy accidentally got into the stove, of which the lid was off.

LIVE WASHINGTON TOPICS. HARRITT AND HENSEL'S PLAN FOR

It Would Give Them Control of Most of the Fourth-class Postmasters in Pennsylvania - The Rouch Incident Revived in the Sensite-Secretary Carifole's Appointments.

WARRINGTON, April 5 .- Attorney-General W. M. Hensel of Pennsylvania, accompanied by J. Marshal Wright, Chairman of the Demogratic State Central Committee, made a flying visit to Washington to-dar. The object of their visit was one of much significance to the small-fry office seekers of Pennsylvania. There has been much interest felt as to the plan Mr. Cleveland will pursue in distributing the majority of the Congressmen are Republi-cans. It has been suggested that the State Central Committees of these States be recog-nized in making recommendations in districts This plan has been combated in Pennsylvania

This plan has been combated in Pennsylvania by the members of the "Congressional combine" who are opposed to National Chairman William F. Harrity having absolute dictatorable, but it is agreeable to Mr. Harrity and his friends, as the Ftate Central Committee is in reality Mr. Harrity.

It was helieved that Mr. Harrity and Mr. Hensel have received intimation that this plan of recommending appointments is to be followed, in the matter, of fourth class Postmaters at least. Mr. Hensel and State Chairman Wright therefore called on "Headsman" Maxwell to day, and are said to have left with him a list of leading Democrats residing in Republican districts who are to be consulted in regard to the appointment of fourth class Postmasters, and whose recommendations are to prevail. As there are only ten of the twenty-eight Congress districts represented by Democrats, Mesars, Harrity and Hensel, through the State Central Committee, which is their absolute machine, will have a wide field to build up their system, if the plan proposed is adopted by the Post Office Department. This large amount of patronage is said to be earnestly desired by Mr. Hensel, as it may assist him in his campaign for Gubermatorial nomination next year.

The visit of Hensel and Wright to-day has stirred up the members of the "Congressional combine" to a fighting pitch A meeting of that hody will probably be held in a few days. At their last assiston it was the general sentiment that the ten Democratic Congressmen, or as many of them as could agree together, should have something to say with regard to the parronage in Hepublican districts adjoining their own.

Mr. Chandler revived the Roach incident by a resolution calling on the Treasury for conies of the reports of the Citizens' Bank of Washington, D. Senator Vance, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections, said this afternoon that nothing would be done this afternoon that nothing would be done this session in the matter of the contest for the seat of Mr. Martin, the Senator from Kansas. He said that it would be impossible to take it up at this time, for the reason that as soon as the President signifies his intention of submitting nothing more to the Senate the hody would adjourn. Mr. Vance thinks that within two days after the President has said be has no further communication to make there would not be a quorum of Senators in the city. If the President keeps the Senate here sufficiently long, he believes it may be possible to secure a vote on the Martin case, but he does not think such a result likely. The general impression is that the Senate will adjourn one week from Saturday next.

A NEW YORK MIRACLE.

A REMARKABLE AFFIDAVIT MADE BY WELL-KNOWN BUSINESS MAN.

Tenrs-Bid Not Walk a Step for Five Years-Was Given Up by the Leading Physicians of New York City and Discharged From the Manhattan Mospital as Incurable -His Marvellous Recovery in Detail. (From the New York Tribune.)

(From the New York Tribune.)

For some time there has been an increasing number of stories rubilished in the newpapers of New York city, telling of marvellous cures of various diseases that have been made by different medicines and treatments. So remarkable are many of these stories in their nature, that much doubt has been aroused in the minds of the masses as to their authenticity. If they are true in detail, surely the occupation of the physician is gone, and there is no reason why any one should die of anything but old age. If they are not true, it would be interesting to know how such testimonisis and statements are obtained. The first question that arises is: Are there any such p-roons? If so, were they really cured as stated, or are they liberally paid for the use of their names? The latter explanation is the one that no doubt suggests itself to the average thinking newspaper reader, and not without good reason.

It has song been the intention of the Tribune to investigate one of the most interesting cases that could be found and give the truth to the world as a matter of news. An especially good opportunity for investigation offered itself in the shape of the following leiter, which came into the hands of a reporter from a most reliable source:

"Gentlemen: I feel it my duty to inform you what Dr. Williams's Pink Filis for Phile ing ago abandoned ail hope of ever being relieved.

"I am 51 years of age and was born in Hudson, N. Y. I served my time in the army, being corporal of Company A, Twenty-lirst New Jersey Volunteers, and I believe the exposure of army life was the seed from which has sprung all my sufferings. It has been about fifteen years since I noticed the firstsymptoms of my disease. The trouble began with pains in the stomach, for which I could find no relief. I consuited Dr. Allen of Yorkville, and also Dr. Pratt, since deceased, and with remarkable unanimity they pronounced it smokers' dyspepsia. This seemed probable, for at that time I was a great smoker. The pains, however, gradually became more severe and began to extend to my limbs. The attacks came on at intervals of about a month, and while the paroxysms lasted I was in aimost incredible misery.

"Dr. Prattexhausted his powers in my behalf, and finally told me that he could do nothing more for me.

"I did not leave a single stone unturned in

"I did not leave a single stone unturned in my search for relief, but grasped at every straw. Finally I was advised by Dr. Gill to go to the well-known specialist. Dr. Hamilion, He gave me a most thorough examination, having me stripped for a full half hour, and told me he could find no trace of any disease. excepting one nerve of the eye. A year later my friend told me that Dr. Hamilton privately said that I had a very grave disease of the brain.

ing and gained some hope; urgent business matters, however, compelled me to give up the hospital treatment, and it was but a short time until I was as bad as ever. From this on I grew rapidly worse. The pains were more intense, my legs were numb, and I felt I was growing weaker every day. I returned to the hospital, and this time was under treatment by Dr. Seguin. He treated me for about three months and then, for the first time. I was told that I had locomotor ataxia and was beyond the aid of medical science. Dr. Seguin also told my wife that there was no hope for me in the world, and to expect my deathat any time. I was now a complete physical wreck; all power, feeling, and color had left my legs, and it was impossible for me to feel the most severe pluch or even the thrust of a needle.

"If my skin was scratched there would be no flow of blood whatever, and it would take it fully six weeks to heal up. In the night I would have to feel around to find my legs. My pains were excruciating, and at times almost unbearable. I would take large dones of morphine to deaden the pains and he nearly dead the next day from its effects. About flive years ago I learned that Dr. Cleot of Paris claimed to have discovered a relief for lecomotor ataxis in suspending the body by the neck, the object being to stretch the spine. I wrote to Dr. Lewis A. Sayre of 285 bits av. about the matter, and at his request called to see him.

"He was sointerested in my case that he made a machine, or rathers a harnoss for me, free of charge. It was fitted with pads and straps to fit under the chin and at the back of the neck, and in this position. I would be suspended from the floor twice a day. Although I received no benefit from this treatment, I shall always feel grateful to Dr. Sayre for his great laterest and kinciness.

"He severe had my case become by this time that I could not walk without assistance, and was almost ready to give the pills a firal. I confess I dai not have the least faith in their efficacy, but finally consented to ry

Any one having heard Mr. L'Hommedieu's narrative could not for a moment doubt its entire truthfulness, but such a remarkable story is likely to be doubted by a skeptical public, and as a safeguard against even a shadow of doubt, a Notary Public was called in and both Mr. and Mrs. L'Hommedieu is widely the fact that Mr. L'Hommedieu is widely the fact that Mr. L'Hommedieu is widely known in losiness circles. His long concetton with the well-known plano firm of Marchal A. Smith, 235 East 21st st. Jas brought him in touch with some of the best known business men in Now York and other large cities, and his case has created widespread interest.

The reporter next called on Mr. Robert W. Smith, a member of the lirm of Marchal & Smith. Mr. Smith was found at his desk busily engaged, but when the reporter mentioned Mr. L'Hommedieu's name and stated the nature of his call, Mr. Smith cheerfully gave the following information with but little questioning on the part of the reporter:

"I have known Rr. George L'Hommedieu for twenty years, and always found him a most estimable gentieman and a business man of great energy. He became connected with our firm as secretary in 1870, and attended strictly to his office duties until 1821, when he was stricken down with his trouble. I distinctly recall the day when he was taken with the first spasm, and we had to send him to his home in a carriage. Even after he lest control of his lega, so great was his interest in business infairs that he would drive to the office and direct the work he had in charge. As the disease advanced he was obliged to succumb, and reluctantly gave up his office work. From that time on his sufferings were almost incredible, and yet, so great was his fortitude, that he bore them without a murmur. I know that he tried various physicians and their treatments without the least success, and he stafes that he was finally discharged from the Manhaban Hayital, and told that he was in the last stages of locomotor staxia, and was beyond the hope of human aid. About six montas ago or so he was advised by Mr. James to try Dr. Williams's Pink Pills for Pale People, with the cold water treatment. He commenced to take Pink Pills about September last, though not regularly, for. like myself, he had very ittle faith in proprietary medicines, and was very skeptical about the ley merits. Bo great was his improvement that he was entirely converted, and commenced to take the pills as directed. The last time I saw Mr. L'Hommedieu he had gained the use of his libs to such an extent that he could walk up stairs with the help of his wife, and is now doing much important work for us at his home.
